The Daily Quote

"Senior Senate Republicans said a DHS shutdown would be a political debacle given the increased violence in the Middle East and new threats of attack against U.S. and European shopping malls. 'I do believe in this time where we have the kind of threats that we have from all over the world, we certainly need to make sure that Homeland Security is fully funded...' [Sen. Bob] Corker [R-TN] said Sunday on NBC's 'Meet the Press'. 'I hope my House colleagues will understand that our best bet is to challenge this in court, that if we don't fund the Department of Homeland Security, we'll get blamed as a party,' [Sen. Lindsey] Graham [R-SC] said on ABC's 'This Week'... [Sen. John] McCain [R-AZ] said that he is 'angry' over the president's unilateral move but that Republicans are destined to be blamed for a DHS shutdown, which could undermine their broader standing on the issue. 'I remember last time we shut down the whole government,' McCain said... 'I don't want to see that movie again.'"
